Self – Advocate Peer Advisor

“You Speak I Listen”

June 2010

Phone: 250-564-6408

HISTORY

The AiMHi Self –Advocate Peer Advisor was hired on June 11, 2001. To support the people who receive services.

Who is the Peer – Advisor?

My name is Penny Soderena. I have lived in Prince George for over 25 years. I receive services from AiMHi and support my community anyway I can.

QUALIFICATIONS

I have belonged to different groups, like BC Association for Community Living, Canadian Association for Community Living and I sit on the Advisory Committee at CNC.

I have represented Self – Advocates on the AiMHi board, Network Web and the Self – Advocate Groups in BC. Therefore, I have lots of skills on advocating.

What can the Self – Advocate Peer Advisor do for you?

- Give support.
- Can advocate for you.
- Have various materials that are in easy language.
- Develop work shops that you would like to see and learn.
- Help you get what you need.

Where can you find the Peer Advisor?

The Peer Advisor works directly out of the AiMHi's Main Office in the Prince George Caucus Office. If you would like to meet her at anytime, just ask the front desk.
