

Youth Volunteer Initiative

The Heart of AiMHi is you

Why Volunteer at AiMHi

- Friendly people
- Fun activities
- Leadership experience
- Increased communication skills
- Build Confidence
- Build Self esteem

Aimhi

950 Kerry st
Prince George, BC
Phone: (250) 564 6408

<http://www.aimhi.ca>

AiMHi One Community, One Vision

- AiMHi supports children who have special needs, adults who have developmental disabilities and their families. Through the provision of advocacy, services, supports and education, AiMHi fosters a community where people are celebrated for their gifts, abilities and contributions.

HOW DO I BECOME A VOLUNTEER

- 15 to 18 years of age
- A letter of recommendation from your school or school district.
- Have a TB test
- Have a Criminal record check
- A medical reference of good health
- Your Commitment
- Youth volunteers will be asked to volunteer some time at the fun events Christmas Parties, dances, carnivals, craft fairs etc.
- When signing up to volunteer for The Summer Recreation Program, One week minimum commitment will be necessary.

BENEFITS OVERVIEW:

- Volunteer hours for graduation
- Working with children
- Develop friendships
- Experience with helping people with disabilities
- Develop Contacts for future employment.
- Mentoring
-

For information about AiMHi visit our Web site:
<http://www.aimhi.ca>

For more info about volunteering at AiMHi ,

Email: brenda.oneill@aimhi.ca